FAMILY LAW ATTORNEYS — ADVOCACY IN ACTION

Higgs Fletcher & Mack's Family Law Group attorneys understand the emotional and financial difficulties individuals encounter when involved in a family law dispute or negotiation. We are committed to a philosophy of full-service representation, advocating for our clients in a compassionate yet assertive manner while focusing on the protection of their legal rights and best interests. Group attorneys place a premium on addressing your legal challenges so you (client) can focus on (your) children, family, and financial future and security.

PROACTIVE REPRESENTATION EXPERTISE TO REDUCE EXPOSURE AND AVOID LITIGATION

The majority of clients involved in family law matters seek to resolve their differences in a low conflict, cost-effective manner. Senior Family Law Group attorneys are formally trained as mediators, assisting both parties in reaching a mutually agreeable resolution of their issues. Group attorneys are also trained to represent clients in the mediation and settlement process and are committed to helping mediation clients avoid the cost and stress of litigation.
