

ZANE A. BRYANT

Zane Bryant is an immigration attorney with clients in businesses of all sizes, from small and medium companies to Fortune 500 corporations.

If a client seeks an employment-based solution for an immigration need, Mr. Bryant has the experience and knowledge to find the answer.

Mr. Bryant has represented clients with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, the Department of State and the Department of Labor. He has also worked on PERM labor certifications, adjustment status and naturalization applications, consular processing and nonimmigrant petitions. In addition to his experience, his success can be attributed to his passion for helping others.

Since law school, Mr. Bryant has committed himself to assisting with immigration cases pro bono, which includes representing those seeking asylum or other temporary protected status and DACA applicants. He has interned with various immigration organizations, represented individuals under the Violence Against Women Act and was part of the Hastings for Gender and Refugee Studies Human Rights clinical program. He has also conducted research on Mexican migrant representation in the media, border enforcement and photojournalism techniques.

Mr. Bryant was selected to the 2021 and 2022 Best Lawyers in America® "Ones to Watch" list, recognizing lawyers who have been in private practice between five and ten years. This award highlights the most promising younger lawyers in the country.
