

MAYRA A. CASTRO

Mayra Alejandra Castro is an attorney in HFM's Immigration & Nationality Law practice group.

Ms. Castro's practice includes all areas of immigration and nationality law, including employment-based immigration, family-based immigration, deportation and removal hearings, naturalization and citizenship cases, cases under the Violence Against Women Act, and consular processing of visas and green cards in San Diego and throughout the United States.

Prior to joining HFM, Ms. Castro worked at California Rural Legal Assistance, an organization dedicated to providing services to California's low-income communities. Her experience also includes working on Special Immigrant Juvenile Cases with Casa Cornelia Law Center and serving as an intern for American Bar Association's Immigration Justice Project and the Immigration Center for Women and Children. In addition, she was a Judicial Law Clerk for the San Diego Superior Court. She began her law career as an intern at HFM while in law school.

Ms. Castro is a certified paralegal and is fluent in both English and Spanish. She is also a competitive bachata dancer.

PRACTICE GROUPS

- ▶ Immigration & Nationality Law

EDUCATION

- ▶ J.D., University of San Diego School of Law (2018)
- ▶ B.A., University of California, San Diego (2013)

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

- ▶ California

AFFILIATIONS

- ▶ State Bar of California
- ▶ San Diego County Bar Association
- ▶ San Diego La Raza Lawyers Association