

BUSINESS LITIGATION

PROVEN BUSINESS LITIGATION ATTORNEYS

HFM's Business Litigation Group has over 80 years of experience representing clients in nearly every kind of business dispute.

Our expertise in business litigation includes commercial and contract litigation, securities and other corporate matters and all aspects of intellectual property, including patent, trademark, copyright, and trade secret litigation. We also have done substantial litigation work in the following areas:

- Real Estate, Construction and Land Use Matters
- Environmental and Hazardous Waste Issues
- Employment Law; Bankruptcy, Reorganization and Creditors' Rights
- Products Liability
- Healthcare Litigation
- OSHA or Other Regulatory Enforcement Matters
- Professional Liability Disputes
- False Advertising and Other Consumer Fraud Actions
- Tax Cases
- Trust and Estate Litigation
- Insurance Coverage and Related Matters

When it comes to business litigation matters, we strive to handle each matter as strategically and cost-effectively as possible.

Our location in downtown San Diego, in close proximity to the U.S./Mexico border, provides us with an in-depth understanding of cross-border issues and other international disputes. HFM's litigators are experienced trial lawyers in all State and Federal courts throughout California who collectively have successfully tried thousands of cases before juries and judges. We also have a high level of experience handling arbitration, mediation, and other alternative dispute resolutions.

HFM's Business Litigation Practice Group has a well-earned reputation for tenacious and zealous advocacy on behalf of our clients. We are proud that many HFM litigators have been appointed as judges to the State and Federal bench, including two sitting Justices of the California Court of Appeal.
