

MEREDITH KING

Meredith King represents individual business owners, corporate clients, and fiduciaries in complex real estate, construction, business, and bankruptcy litigation. Prior to joining HFM, Ms. King served as Chief Judge Margaret M. Mann’s career law clerk, where she assisted in adjudicating trials on issues of breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, real property and business valuations, fraudulent transfers, dischargeability, land use, usury, and quiet title issues.

She is admitted to the U.S. District and Bankruptcy Courts for Northern, Eastern, Central, and Southern Districts of California. Ms. King graduated cum laude from Smith College and magna cum laude from California Western School of Law, receiving Academic Merit and Creative Problem Solving scholarships. During law school, she was the Executive Editor of Lead Articles for the California Western Law Review and interned at the Department of Justice, Tax Division in Washington, D.C., where she assisted in litigating appeals on behalf of the United States in the Ninth and Eleventh Circuits.

Ms. King served as President of the San Diego Bankruptcy Forum Executive Board in 2020 and is currently the organization’s Vice President. In 2020, she was appointed to the California Lawyers Association’s Business Law Section, Insolvency Law Committee. She has also been a member of Lawyers Club of San Diego since 2010 and is the former chair of the History & Archives Committee.
