

SCOTT J. INGOLD

Scott Ingold is an estate and trust litigation partner licensed in both California and Nevada. He assists in probate matters and handles all aspects of estate litigation, including pre-filing negotiations and trials.

Mr. Ingold has developed a reputation for delivering favorable results to his clients while effectively managing risk. When meeting with clients, his first goal is understanding their needs and concerns. Only then does he engage in a conversation where together realistic goals and expectations are established.

He has litigated matters in state and federal courts, in jury and bench trials, and in binding arbitrations. His prior experience includes medical malpractice, business and employment disputes, products liability, wrongful death, insurance coverage and bad faith issues, and land use.

In 2020, Mr. Ingold was named to the Southern California Super Lawyers® list. He was also named a San Diego “Rising Star” by Super Lawyers® from 2015 to 2017. While attending California Western School of Law, he won first place in the Gill Oral Advocacy Competition and second place in the University of Oklahoma Indian Law Writing Competition. He also served as Editor-in-Chief of the California Western International Law Journal and he received the Outstanding Associate Award from that journal and the California Western Law Review.
