

JULIE M. DEWBERRY

Julie Dewberry’s practice is focused on US and international estate and income tax planning, trust administration, charitable planning, and nonprofit organizations.

Julie advises successful families and individuals on the tax-efficient accumulation, preservation, and transfer of assets. She routinely prepares estate plans for clients who need sophisticated wealth transfer tax planning and business succession planning. Julie is skilled at mitigating interfamily disputes. She advises beneficiaries and fiduciaries in complex probate and trust administrations and resolves estate and gift tax audits.

Julie also advises clients in implementing charitable gifts and assists nonprofit organizations in formation, and ongoing operations. Her practice includes applications for federal and state tax-exempt status, retroactive reinstatement of tax-exempt status, grant making, the self-dealing rules, contracts, dissolutions, and compensation.

Julie is a regular speaker on the topics of estate, gift, and fiduciary income tax and presents with the Estate and Gift Tax Advisor of the U.S. Department of the Treasury on the same. Julie is a member of the Korean American Bar Association of San Diego, the Rady Children’s Hospital Foundation Estates and Trusts Council, the Trusts and Estates Section of the San Diego County Bar Association, and the North County Estate Planning Council.

Julie hails from Virginia with strong roots in Washington D.C. and Florida. She has been fortunate to work with lawyers and other professionals throughout the United States and keeps an extensive network of contacts for the benefit of her clients.
