

FAMILY LAW

PROVEN FAMILY LAW ATTORNEYS

When it comes to family law matters, HFM's Family Law Practice Group attorneys have over 80 years of collective experience representing clients across all areas of family law.

We are aggressive and effective advocates, with significant experience working on marital dissolution, adoption, property and debt division matters, in addition to paternity claims and mediation. The HFM Family Law Practice Group strives to deliver positive, cost effective results in all areas of family law. Our expertise and experience includes work in the following areas:

- Marital Dissolution
- Legal Separation
- Child Custody and Visitation
- Property and Debt Division
- Paternity Judgements
- Step-Parent Adoptions
- Pre- and Post-nuptial Agreements
- Cohabitation Agreements
- Mediation
- Domestic Violence Restraining Orders

Our family law attorneys are firmly committed to our community, and we are proud to represent a significant number of military families. Through our vast experience, we have become intimately familiar with military pay and benefits, including retirement. We understand the financial and logistical pressures placed on military families, offering reduced hourly rates to active duty military members and their spouses.

We know that when you seek out a law firm to assist you with your family law matter, you are going through a difficult time and need counsel you can trust. We approach every case as if it were our own family matter and handle each matter with the diligence and respect it deserves.

Our senior-most attorneys are all formally trained as mediators, as we strive to assist both parties in any family law matter seamlessly find a mutually agreeable resolution. Our end goal is to find success and optimal solutions on behalf of our clients, while also minimizing the costs and personal stress that can often be affiliated with family law matters.

We advocate for our clients in a compassionate yet assertive manner, while focusing on the protection of your legal rights and best interests. HFM's attorneys can expertly handle all of the challenges involved in your matter so that you can focus on your children, family, and financial future and security.