Philip Mauriello, Jr. is a part of HFM's Trust & Estates Practice Group, with a practice focused on estate planning, probate administration, and trust administration.

Mr. Mauriello is dedicated to helping individuals and families feel confident about their future through thoughtful and personalized estate planning. With years of hands-on experience guiding clients through wills, trusts, probate, and legacy preservation, he brings both deep legal knowledge and a caring approach to every matter. Before joining HFM, he led the estate planning and probate department at a respected local firm and previously ran his own practice focused entirely on estate planning and related litigation.

Clients appreciate Mr. Mauriello's ability to simplify complex legal issues and create clear, practical plans tailored to their needs and values. He earned his law degree cum laude from Thomas Jefferson School of Law, where he was active in Law Review, Moot Court, and the ADR Society. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts in political science from the University of the Pacific."
