Roxanne Nurse

Roxanne Nurse is a seasoned litigator with over a decade of experience and a thriving practice focused on defending commercial transportation companies in high-stakes litigation.

As a member of HFM's Transportation Practice Group, Ms. Nurse works closely with trucking companies, insurers, and risk management professionals to navigate complex claims, including catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases. She is skilled in strategic legal planning, discovery processes, and early case resolution to protect her clients' interests while remaining trial-ready when necessary.

Ms. Nurse's extensive background in workers' compensation defense provides a strong foundation for her growing focus on the unique challenges of subrogation claims. Her work also includes product liability cases and other complex litigation matters integral to the transportation industry.

As part of HFM's Rapid Response Team, Ms. Nurse provides immediate legal assistance at accident scenes to preserve evidence and protect client interests. Her knowledge of cutting-edge transportation technology and document retention practices is vital to the defense of transportation cases.

Originally from South Africa, Roxanne immigrated to the United States in 2008. She earned her Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from the University of Pretoria and an LL.M. in Comparative Law from the University of San Diego before beginning her career in civil litigation.
