KYLE W. NAGEOTTE

Specializing in employment and business litigation, HFM Partner Kyle W. Nageotte helps clients navigate complex class action disputes and employment litigation.

Mr. Nageotte is a litigator handling employment matters on behalf of management, and individual owners and businesses in business and partnership disputes. Mr. Nageotte practices across the State of California representing clients at all stages of litigation, from mediation to class action certification to arbitration and jury trials. Along with his complex litigation work, Mr. Nageotte also represents businesses in single-plaintiff litigation involving discrimination, retaliation, harassment, wage-and-hour, wrongful termination, and trade secrets.

A natural leader, Mr. Nageotte is a past-Chair of the California Young Lawyers Association (CYLA), the largest association of young lawyers in the nation, which is part of the California Lawyers Association. In this role, he advocated on behalf of more than 50,000 CYLA members in California and worked closely with other Sections of the California Lawyers Association to provide training and continuing education opportunities to new attorneys across California. His leadership and community service experience also includes serving as the six-time Co-Chair of the Tom Homann Law Association's Annual Dinner and Awards Ceremony. Mr. Nageotte currently sits on the Board of Directors for the Downtown San Diego Partnership, a non-profit organization that aims to enhance the economic and cultural aspects of downtown San Diego through a variety of strategies and partnerships.

Prior to earning his law degree, Mr. Nageotte was a lobbyist in San Diego. In law school, he was selected as a National Member of The Order of Barristers for outstanding courtroom advocacy, and he was a member of the University of San Diego's award-winning National Mock Trial Team.
